NATIONAL REPORT—From New York to Hawaii, here's a look at some of the hotel openings—and planned openings—in the industry this week.

The Adelphi Hotel

The Adelphi Hotel has opened its doors in Saratoga Springs, NY. The property has 32 guestrooms, which have all been reconfigured to offer a more spacious and luxurious experience. The new 2,300-sq.-ft. grand ballroom can accommodate up to 250 guests. The original hotel had approximately 74 rooms when it was built in the late 1800s. The previous owners modified the hotel to just over 40 rooms.

Westdrift Manhattan Beach

Westdrift Manhattan Beach, Los Angeles' first Autograph Collection Hotel, is expected to open in January 2018. The property will have 392 guestrooms, 60 of which will have private balconies with views of the golf course. There will also be 12 executive suites and a standout presidential suite. Westdrift's signature restaurant will be an available F&B option. The property has 35,000 sq. ft. of indoor-outdoor space, including 23 meeting rooms and two venues.

Embassy Suites by Hilton Oahu Kapolei

The property has a sundeck with an outdoor pool, whirlpool and on-property restaurants, such as Sprig's Grille, which serves lunch and dinner.
